Rule 295-3-.06. Computation of Time.

Computation of any period of time referred to in these rules shall begin with the first day following that on which the act which initiates such period of time occurs. When the last day of the period so computed is a day on which the office of the Joint Secretary is closed, the period shall run until the end of the following business day. When such period of time, with the intervening Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays counted, is seven (7) days or less, the said Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded from the computation; or otherwise such days shall be included in the computation.

Rule 295-3-.07. Extension of Times.

It shall be within the discretion of the presiding officer to extend, for good cause shown, any time limit prescribed or allowed by these rules. All requests for an extension should be made by a motion in accordance with Rule 295-5-.01 and shall indicate therein whether all parties concur. The presiding officer shall notify all parties of its action upon the motion. Extension shall be granted only when the presiding officer is satisfied that good cause has been shown and not otherwise.

Rule 295-3-.10. Petition for Promulgation, Amendment, or Repeal of Rules.

1) Form of Petition. Each petition for promulgation, amendment or repeal of rules made pursuant to the Georgia Administration Procedure Act shall be filed with the examining board which had enacted the rule, or would otherwise be charged with enforcing the rule. The petition shall be in writing and shall state:
   (a) The name and address of the petitioner;

   (b) The full text of the rule requested to be amended or repealed, or the full text of the rule desired to be promulgated;
(c) A statement of the reason such rule should be amended, repealed, or promulgated including a statement of all pertinent existing facts which relate to petitioner's interest in the matter;

(d) Citations of legal authority, if any, which authorize, support, or require the action requested by petition. The petition shall be verified under oath by or in proper behalf of; the petitioner.

(2) Proceeding on Petition. Upon receipt of the petition, the examining board shall decide upon the action to be taken. Within thirty days after receipt of the petition, the board either shall deny the petition in writing (stating its reasons for the denial) or shall initiate rule-making or rule-changing proceedings in accordance with Section 4 of the Georgia Administrative Procedure Act.

Chapter 295-4. PLEADINGS.

Rule 295-4-.01. Initial Pleading.

(1) The hearing in a contested case shall be commenced by the agency's filing of a notice of hearing directed to the respondent, or respondents.

(2) Every pleading or other paper submitted for filing in a contested case, to the extent possible, shall contain the following:

(a) A title which indicates the nature of the proceeding and the parties involved therein;

(b) The name of the agency;

(c) A short and plain statement of the nature of the pleading (e.g. Answer, Motion for Continuance, etc.);

(d) In addition, the notice of hearing shall, to the extent possible, contain the following:

   1. A short and plain statement of the matters asserted or the issues involved;

   2. A clear and concise statement of the laws involved;
3. A notice of the rights of the person to whom the notice of hearing is directed;

4. A statement that an answer to the matters asserted is required;

5. Any other information required by law or deemed appropriate by the agency.

Chapter 295-5. MOTIONS AND PRE-HEARING PROCEDURES - AMENDED.

Rule 295-5-.01. Motions: Written and Oral.

(1) An application to the agency for an order to take any action or to enter any order shall be made by motion which, unless made during the hearing, shall be made in writing, shall state specifically the grounds therefor, and shall set forth the action or order sought. A copy of all written motions shall be served upon the parties in accordance with Chapter 295-6.

(2) A motion for a continuance or an extension of time shall be ruled upon by the presiding officer forthwith. All other motions shall be ruled upon by the presiding officer at the outset of the hearing, after an opportunity for argument by the parties; provided, however, that when the presiding officer is a duly appointed hearing officer, the presiding officer may establish a hearing schedule and dispose of motions at his discretion. The presiding officer may request briefs in support of or in opposition to any motion.

Rule 295-5-.03. General Procedures.

Proceedings before the agency shall be conducted as expeditiously as possible, with due regard to the rights of the parties. In contested cases before the professional licensing boards, upon issuance of a notice of hearing, the procedures set forth in this chapter and Chapter 295-8 shall enable the parties to obtain relevant information needed for preparation of the case, to the extent that such disclosure is authorized by law.

Cite as Ga. Comp. R. & Regs. R. 295-5-.03

1. The parties shall within a reasonable time prior to the commencement of the hearing but at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing, exchange lists of the names, addresses, and phone numbers of witnesses, including experts, whom each party expects to call or may call on its behalf.

2. The parties shall also, within a reasonable period of time prior to the hearing, exchange copies of documents, and designate documents already in the possession of the other party which are intended to be introduced as evidence at the hearing. The parties shall similarly, upon request, make available to each other for inspection, copying, testing or sampling any tangible item intended to be introduced as evidence.

3. Respondent shall be furnished, within a reasonable time prior to the commencement of the hearing but at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing, any written statements or other record memorializing oral statements made by the Respondent during the course of the investigation.

4. The parties shall be required to confer either in person or by telephone, in reasonable advance of a scheduled hearing date but at least seven (7) days prior to the hearing, in a good-faith attempt to reach an agreement as to the admissibility of any documents or tangible items intended to be offered in evidence for either side. The parties may stipulate as to any matter of fact and such stipulation will satisfy a party's burden of proving the fact alleged. The parties shall be encouraged to reach pre-hearing stipulations which could facilitate adjudication of the case. The hearing officer, upon his or her own motion or upon the request of either party, may schedule a pre-hearing conference to hear and rule on motions or other preliminary matters, or otherwise facilitate adjudication of the case.
Rule 295-5-.05. Pre-Hearing Discovery.

Except as may be expressly authorized by these rules or by statute, no other forms of prehearing discovery shall be authorized or permitted including, but not limited to the following: interrogatories; requests for production of documents and things; requests for physical or mental examination; and requests for admission.

Chapter 295-6. SERVICE.

Rule 295-6-.01. By the Agency.

Service of the notice of hearing, initial decision and final order shall be by personal delivery or certified mail to the licensee or applicant, in addition to counsel of record. All other notices, pleadings, orders, motions and other documents shall be served by hand delivery or first class mail.

Rule 295-6-.02. Service On All Parties.

A copy of the answer and all other pleadings, notices, motions, briefs, memoranda and other documents filed by any party with the Division Director shall be served upon all other parties to the proceeding, including counsel for the agency, by personal delivery or by first-class mail.

Rule 295-8-.04. Subpoenas.

(1) In contested cases, subpoenas shall be issued without discrimination between public and private parties. At any time after issuance of the Notice of Hearing, and prior to the scheduled date for the hearing, the parties may request the issuance of subpoenas by filing a written request with the Division Director, in accordance with Rule 295-3-.04, with appropriate service on the opposing party or counsel. Subpoena requests shall state the name and complete address of the person to whom it is directed.

(2) Subpoenas issued pursuant to a request in accordance with Rule 295-8-.04(1) shall not be issued in blank. Every subpoena issued by the Division Director shall state the name of the agency and the title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at the hearing at a time and place therein specified, or to produce documents for examination at the hearing, or both. If such a subpoena is directed to any member, investigator, employee, or other agent or representative of the agency, including experts retained by the agency for purposes of the particular case, production of documentary evidence from the agency or investigative file of the applicant or licensee and the taking of testimony at the hearing from such person or persons shall be governed by applicable provisions in the practice act regulating the business or profession, and by O.C.G.A. 43-1-19(h)(2).

Chapter 295-9. TAKING OF TESTIMONY BY DEPOSITION - AMENDED.

Rule 295-9-.01. Taking of Testimony by Deposition.
(1) At anytime during the course of the proceeding, the presiding officer may, in his discretion, permit the testimony of a witness to be taken by deposition. Application to take testimony by deposition shall be made in writing and shall be filed with the Joint Secretary and served upon all parties to the proceedings, including counsel for the agency.

(2) The application shall state the name and address of the witness, the subject matter concerning which the witness is expected to testify, the date, time and place of the proposed deposition, and the reason why the witness cannot appear and testify before the agency. The presiding officer may, in his discretion, allow the application where the circumstances are such that the witness to be deposed cannot appear before the agency without substantial hardship to the deponent or to the parties to the case or that testimony by any other method will unduly delay expeditious completion of the proceedings. An application for the taking of testimony by deposition shall not be allowed if the deposition would result in any undue burden to another party or any undue delay of the proceedings. If the application is allowed, the presiding officer should give notice of the taking of the testimony by deposition to all parties.

Amended: Permanent Rule adopted. Filed March 30, 1976; effective April 19, 1976.

Rule 295-9-.02. Conduct of the Deposition.

(1) Examination and cross-examination of the witness shall proceed as would be permitted at the hearing and under those rules of evidence applicable to proceedings conducted pursuant to the Georgia Administrative Procedure Act. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically and shall be transcribed. All objections made at the time of examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objections to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objection.

(2) All errors and irregularities in the notice of taking testimony by deposition shall be deemed waived unless written objection thereto is served upon the agency prior to the deposition. Objections to taking testimony by depositions because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken shall be deemed waived unless made before the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.
(3) Objections to the competency of a witness are not waived by failure to make them before or during the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time. Errors and irregularities occurring at the taking of the testimony in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form that the questions are answered, in the oath of affirmation, or in the conduct of the parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed or cured if properly presented, shall be deemed waived unless reasonable objection thereto is made at the deposition.

(4) Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer taking the testimony are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

(5) The deposition shall be sealed and filed with the Joint Secretary.

(1) Presiding Officer. The hearing shall be conducted by the presiding officer, who shall be a duly appointed hearing officer, the chairman or president of the agency, or a member of the agency appointed by the agency or the chairman or president thereof to conduct the hearing.

(2) Duties of the Presiding Officer. The presiding officer shall have the authority to do the following: to administer oaths and affirmations; rule upon offers of proofs; regulate the course of the hearing; set the time and place for continued hearings; fix the time for filing briefs and memoranda; dispose of motions; and reprimand or exclude from the hearing any person for any indecorous or improper conduct committed in the presence of the presiding officer.

(3) Sworn Testimony. All testimony given at the hearing shall be under oath administered by the presiding officer or any person designated by him.

(4) Order of Presentation. The State, or in a proper case a moving or complaining party, shall present its evidence or testimony first. Where there is more than one moving or complaining party, the order of presentation shall be at the discretion of the presiding officer. After all of the evidence and testimony of the State, or the moving or complaining party, has been received, all other parties shall be allowed to present their evidence or testimony. All parties, other than the party introducing the testimony, shall be allowed to cross-examine any witness immediately after his testimony has been received. The State, or the moving or complaining party, shall be allowed to present rebuttal testimony or evidence if it so desires.

Rule 295-13-.04. Review of Initial Decision.

(1) Either the Respondent or the Board may seek review of the initial decision of the hearing officer pursuant to O.C.G.A. 50-13-17(a). If the Respondent files a timely motion for review of the initial decision of the hearing officer, the Respondent may include therein a statement of the reasons for seeking review and alleged errors made by the hearing officer in the initial decision. If the Board files a timely order for review of the initial decision on its own motion, it may include in its order the issues to be considered by the Board at the review hearing.

(2) Upon the filing of a timely motion by Respondent seeking review of the initial decision of the hearing officer, or upon the filing of a timely order for review of an initial decision by the Board on its own motion, notice of the date and time for the review shall be served on Respondent or counsel for Respondent and counsel for the agency.

(3) The Board may appoint a hearing officer for review, other than the hearing officer who entered the initial decision, who shall preside over the review proceedings and control the conduct of the review hearing. In acting as presiding officer, the hearing officer for review shall rule on all procedural and evidentiary questions that arise during the course of the review. At the direction of the Board, the hearing officer for review shall draft the final decision for the Board.

(4) On review, the Board shall have all the powers it would have in making the initial decision, and in its discretion shall have the power to take additional testimony or remand the case to the original hearing officer for such purpose, as provided in the Administrative Procedure Act, O.C.G.A. §50-13-17 and in accordance with this Rule. The Respondent or Respondent's counsel and counsel for the Board shall docket any motion, including motions to present additional evidence, at least fourteen (14) days before the date set for the review hearing. Responses to any such motions shall be docketed at least seven (7) days before the date set for the review hearing.

(a) Motions to present additional evidence or to remand the case to the original hearing officer for such purpose shall be granted only if the additional evidence is material and there was good cause for failing to present such evidence before the original hearing officer. The hearing officer for review who acts as presiding officer over the review proceedings shall enter an order as to the legal sufficiency of all motions, including motions for the presentation of additional evidence, prior to the review hearing.

(5) Oral argument up to 30 minutes per side is permitted in the review hearing. Additional time for argument must be requested in writing and docketed at least fourteen (14) days before the date set for the review hearing.

(6) Once the review hearing is concluded, the Board shall deliberate as to the final decision. Neither the hearing officer for review nor the parties nor their counsel shall be present during or participate in the deliberations or voting on the final decision. Provided, however, that during the course of the deliberations the Board may seek or obtain legal advice of its counsel or make an inquiry on the record concerning either procedure or the merits of the case in the presence of all parties.

(a) At the conclusion of the deliberations, the decision of the Board shall be announced in open session, unless the sanction imposed by the decision is made confidential by statute, in which case it shall be announced in camera to the Respondent and counsel for the parties. The Board may take the matter under advisement and continue the deliberations until a date certain if deemed necessary due to the Board's agenda or the complexity of the issues.

Rule 295-15-.02. Georgia State Board of Nursing Home Administrators.

1. Any licensee who holds a current license and who is not practicing as a nursing home administrator may request the Board to place that license into an "inactive status" upon written application to the Board and payment of a non-refundable inactive status application fee. See fee schedule. The Board, in its sole discretion, may grant or deny the request for inactive status. Any licensee whose license is on inactive status may not engage in the practice of nursing home administration or serve as the administrator of record of a nursing home.

2. In order to reactivate an inactive license, submit the appropriate application, forms, and fee to the Board.
(a) If a license is inactive for twelve (12) months or less, but no more than twenty-four months (24), the applicant must submit forty (40) hours of Continuing Education "CE" obtained since the Board's last renewal period.

(b) If a license is inactive for twenty-four (24) months, but not more than thirty-six (36) months, eighty (80) hours of CE obtained since the Board's last renewal period must be submitted to the Board.

(c) If the license has been inactive more than thirty-six (36) months, the applicant must meet current requirements and either submit eighty (80) hours of CE since the Board's last renewal period, OR take and pass the national exam.

(d) If the inactive license holds an active license from the Georgia Board's approved state's list and has been employed for one year as a Nursing Home Administrator prior to the date of the application, then the applicant must submit an application, fee, and verification of an active, current license from the state or jurisdiction in which the license is held.

Rule 295-15-.03. State Board of Examiners of Psychologists.

1. A licensee who holds a current license and who is not using the title "psychologist" in Georgia and will not practice psychology in the State of Georgia may apply for inactive status by completing an Application for Inactive Status and submitting the appropriate fee to the Board. A licensee may not use their license in the State of Georgia while that license is on inactive status.

2. A licensee who wishes to reactivate an inactive status license who has an active license in another state and who has been actively practicing psychology there within the past two (2) years must submit to the Board an Application to Reactivate, documentation of forty (40) hours of continuing education activities that were completed within two (2) calendar years of the date the application is received by the Board, and appropriate fee.

3. For the Board to approve reactivation of the license of a psychologist who has not had an active license in another state and who has not been actively practicing psychology, the licensee must also pass both the Georgia Jurisprudence and Oral Examinations in addition to the requirements set forth in (2) above.

Rule 295-15-.04. Georgia State Board of Veterinary Medicine.

1. A veterinarian or veterinary technician who wishes to discontinue the practice of veterinary medicine may apply for an "inactive license." A veterinarian or veterinary technician holding an "inactive license" may not practice in the state of Georgia.

2. A Doctor of Veterinary Medicine or a veterinary technician who holds a valid current active license to practice as a veterinarian or veterinary technician in the State of Georgia may request the license be placed on inactive status under the following provisions:
   (a) The licensee must submit a written request to the Board requesting inactive status. The written request shall contain the notarized signature of the licensee and contain the following statements:
      (i) "I understand that with an inactive license I shall not engage in the practice of veterinary medicine as a veterinarian or veterinary technician and shall not hold myself out to the public as being available to provide veterinary services."
      (ii) "I understand that I am not required to renew said license while on inactive status."
      (iii) "I understand I am not required to obtain the continuing education credits while on inactive status unless I request to be placed on active status."
      (iv) "I understand that to practice or to hold oneself out as available to practice veterinary medicine with an inactive license is unlicensed practice and I would be subject to disciplinary action."

3. In order to reinstate the license to active status the licensee must:
   (a) Submit a written request for reinstatement of said inactive status license.
   (b) Submit proof of attendance at not less than thirty (30) hours of Board approved continuing education within two (2) years of the date of the request to reinstate.
   (c) Provide evidence acceptable to the Board that the licensee has not had a license revoked, suspended, disciplined or otherwise sanctioned in any other jurisdiction that ever issued a license to practice.
   (d) Provide evidence acceptable to the Board that licensee has not been convicted of a felony or any crime involving moral turpitude.
   (e) Pay the reinstatement fee, as determined by the Board.
Rule 295-15-.05. Georgia Composite Board of Professional Counselors, Social Workers and Marriage and Family Therapists.

(1) Inactive licensure status is not available for Associate Professional Counselors or Associate Marriage and Family Therapist licensees. Inactive licensure status is available for Professional Counselors, Social Workers, and Marriage and Family Therapists.

(2) A licensee who does not intend to practice in Georgia or to use the title Professional Counselor, Social Worker, or Marriage and Family Therapist may apply for an inactive license status by submitting an application for inactive status and paying the fee required by the Board's fee schedule. A licensee granted inactive status is exempt from filing a biennial license renewal application and paying a license renewal fee. A licensee who holds an inactive status license shall not practice as a Professional Counselor, Social Worker, or Marriage and Family Therapist.

(3) An inactive status license may be changed to active status by filing an application for reinstatement with the Board, complying with reinstatement requirements as defined in Board Rule 135-6-.04, and paying the fee required by the Board's fee schedule. The Board may require the applicant to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Board that he or she has maintained current knowledge, skill and proficiency in the practice of professional counseling, social work or marriage and family therapy, and that he or she is mentally and physically able to practice professional counseling, social work or marriage and family therapy with reasonable skill and safety.

Rule 295-15-.06. Georgia Board of Athletic Trainer.

1. A licensee who does not intend to hold themselves out as an athletic trainer or to practice as an athletic trainer in Georgia may apply for inactive status. An individual who holds an inactive status license will not be required to renew that license.

2. A licensee may apply for inactive status by submitting an affidavit to the Board requesting inactive status and affirming that while on inactive status, he/she will not practice athletic training in Georgia or hold themselves out to the public as an athletic trainer in Georgia.
3. A licensee may maintain his/her license on inactive status for no more than five (5) years. If licensee does not apply to reactivate his/her license before the end of the five-year period, the license will be revoked for failure to reactivate.

4. The board will reactivate a license upon receipt of the following:
   (a) Application for Reactivation;
   (b) Reactivation Fee (See Fee Schedule);
   (c) Evidence of completion of six (6) hours of continuing education approved by the Board for each year the license was inactive, unless, during the period that the Georgia license was inactive, the licensee was:
      (i) practicing with an active license in a jurisdiction that requires continuing education to maintain that license; or
      (ii) practicing with the Board of Certification in a jurisdiction that has licensing requirement.

Rule 295-15-.07. Georgia State Board of Funeral Service.

1. A funeral director or embalmer who holds a current license and who will not practice funeral directing or embalming in Georgia may apply for inactive status by completing an Application for inactive status and submitting the appropriate fee to the Board. An embalmer or funeral director shall not practice embalming or funeral directing in the State of Georgia while that license is on Inactive Status.

2. In order to be placed on inactive status, the license must be in good standing and the licensee must show that he/she has met continuing education hours, which will be required at their next renewal.

3. A funeral director or embalmer who wishes to reactivate an inactive status license must submit to the Board an Application to Reactivate, appropriate fee, and documentation of continuing education.
   a. If the request to reactivate is received more than two (2) years but less than four (4) years from the date on which inactive status was approved, the licensee must document five (5) continuing education hours.
b. If the request to reactivate is received four (4) or more years after the date on which inactive status was approved, the licensee must document ten (10) continuing education hours and take and pass the State Laws and Rules Examination, notwithstanding the fact that they may have passed the Laws and Rules Examination on a prior date.

Authority: O.C.G.A. § 43-1-22.

1. The Board has determined inactive status will be available for those persons meeting the prescribed criteria, which shall remain in full force for life, unless reactivated under Board rules, and which shall incur no fees. To be eligible to be placed in inactive status, a licensee must:
(a) Demonstrate an inability to practice podiatry due to age, physical impairment, or infirmity which time is not expected to resolve;

(b) Have a current active license in good standing to practice podiatry in the State of Georgia;

(c) Must not be under administrative disciplinary action or court action or probation;

(d) Licensees desiring to be placed on inactive status must apply in writing to the Board and submit evidence of inability to practice.

2. Once placed in inactive status, the license holder thereafter shall not engage in the practice of podiatry in any manner in the State of Georgia.

3. The only avenue of reactivation shall be at the discretion of the Board under conditions acceptable to the Board. Licensees seeking reactivation shall be required to pay past license renewal fees based on the current renewal rate for each inactive renewal cycle and submit proof of continuing education for each biennium the license is in inactive status.

Rule 295-15-.17. Georgia State Board of Registration for Professional Geologists.

1. A licensee who is over the age of 65 and retired; or who has become disabled may apply to the Board for inactive status by submitting the required application and any applicable fee.

2. While on inactive status, a licensee is exempt from the payment of the biennial renewal fee.

3. An inactive status licensee may not practice Geology in this State.

4. An inactive status license may be reactivated by filing the proper application, submitting any required documents, and paying the reactivation fee.

Rule 295-15-.18. Georgia Board of Massage Therapists.
1. Licensees may request by application to the Board that their active license to practice as a massage therapist in Georgia be placed on inactive status prior to the license expiration date. Applications for inactive status request will not be considered if postmarked on or after November 1 of an even numbered year. There is no fee to apply for inactive status.

2. An individual whose license status is inactive shall not practice as a massage therapist within the state of Georgia.

3. An individual whose license is under any investigation, is the subject of active disciplinary proceedings, or has a sanction in effect may not transfer the license to an inactive status.

4. Licensees shall request in writing to the Board for the reactivation of their massage therapy license. Reactivation of an inactive status license is within the discretion of the Board. The following requirements must be met:
   a) If a licensee has been on inactive status for two (2) years or less, the applicant must meet the requirements for renewal of licensure pursuant to Board rules.
   b) If a licensee has been on inactive status for a period greater than two (2) years, the applicant must meet the requirements for reinstatement of licensure pursuant to Board Rules.

Rule 295-15-.19. Georgia Board of Electrical Contractors.

1. Any Electrical Contractor licensee who holds a current Georgia license and who is not practicing as an Electrical Contractor may request the Board to place the license into an "inactive status" as follows:
   a) Submit to the Board a written request on a Board-approved form, along with payment of a non-refundable inactive status application fee. See fee schedule.
   b) Any individual whose license is under any sanction and is not in good standing may not transfer to inactive status while sanctions are in effect.
   c) The licensee must show that they have attained the continuing education hours required through the calendar year the inactive status is effective.
   d) During inactive status, the licensee must cease engaging in the practice of Electrical Contracting.
   e) The licensee has not been on inactive status within the last four (4) years.
2. An individual holding inactive status shall abide by the following conditions:
   (a) may not practice and may not offer Electrical Contracting services;
   (b) may not hold themselves out to the public as being available to provide such services;
   (c) may only use the term Electrical Contractor as long as it is not used to imply active contracting services are currently offered.

3. Any practice of Electrical Contracting while holding an inactive license shall be considered unlicensed practice and is subject to disciplinary action.

4. Any individual holding inactive status is not subject to the biennial renewal fee or the continuing education requirements.

5. An individual may apply to have an inactive license reactivated by submitting the following items:
   (a) a completed Request to Reactivate License form to the Board along with payment of a non-refundable Request to Reactivate form fee. See fee schedule; and
   (b) evidence of having satisfied the reactivation requirements for Continuing Education as follows:
      (i) If the request to reactivate is received less than four (4) years from the date on which Inactive Status was granted, the licensee must provide evidence of two (2) years of continuing education hours of the current National Electrical Code as required by active status during this period;
      (ii) If the request to reactivate is received four (4) or more years after the date on which Inactive Status was approved, the licensee must provide evidence four (4) years of continuing education hours of the current National Electrical Code as required by active status.
      (iii) If the applicant requesting to reactivate has held an Electrical Contractors License with a reciprocating state and can show this state's license as being in good standing the whole period the Georgia inactive status has been in place, the applicant need only to request reactivation and submit the fee.

6. After ten (10) years on inactive status the license expires without the possibility of renewal or reinstatement.

Chapter 295-16. FEDERAL STUDENT LOAN DEFAULT.

(1) A person holding a current license issued by a professional licensing board as defined in O.C.G.A. § 43-1-1(3) may have his/her license indefinitely suspended if he/she is found to be in nonpayment status or default or breach of a repayment or service obligation under any federal educational loan, service conditional loan repayment program, or service conditional scholarship program in accordance with the procedures set forth therein.

(2) After receiving a certification from a federal agency that the licensee is in nonpayment status or default or breach of a repayment or service obligation under any federal educational loan, service conditional loan repayment program, or service conditional scholarship program, the professional licensing board shall provide written notice to the licensee via certified or registered mail at the licensee's address of record. The notice shall contain the following:

(a) The professional licensing board's intended action to suspend the license;

(b) The licensee's right to request an appearance before the professional licensing board;

(c) Notification that the request for an appearance must be in writing and must be received by the board within thirty (30) days of service of notice; and

(d) The address and telephone number of the board.

(3) If the licensee does not request an appearance before the professional licensing board within thirty (30) days, the licensee waives the right for an appearance before the professional licensing board and the license will be suspended.

(4) If a request to appear is timely received by the professional licensing board, the suspension of the license shall be stayed pending the licensee's appearance before the professional licensing board.

(5) Upon receipt of the request for an appearance before the professional licensing board, the professional licensing board shall notify the licensee in writing of the date and time of the appearance via certified or registered mail set to the licensee's address of record. At this appearance, the licensee may present evidence only on the following issues:

(a) Whether the licensee is a party named in a federal educational loan agreement, service conditional loan repayment agreement, or service conditional scholarship agreement;

(b) Whether the licensee is in default of the loan obligation, service conditional loan repayment or scholarship obligation;
(c) Whether the licensee is repaying the loan obligation, service conditional loan repayment or scholarship obligation, in a manner satisfactory to the federal agency involved.

(6) Within fourteen (14) working days after the licensee's appearance before the professional licensing board, the board will issue its decision. The board will mail a copy of its decision to the licensee by certified or registered mail to the licensee's address of record.

(7) If the license is suspended, the licensee may not practice during the period of suspension.

(8) A person whose license was suspended for being in nonpayment status or default or breach of a repayment or service obligation under any federal educational loan, service conditional loan repayment program, or service conditional scholarship program may apply to have the suspension lifted. In order to have the suspension lifted, the licensee must:

(a) Request in writing to the professional licensing board that the suspension be lifted;

(b) Provide the professional licensing board a written release from the federal agency originally certifying that the licensee is in nonpayment status or default or breach of a repayment or service obligation under any federal educational loan, service conditional loan repayment program, or service conditional scholarship program;

1. The release must indicate that the licensee is making payments on the loan or satisfying the payment or service requirements in accordance with an agreement approved by the federal agency.

(c) Demonstrate to the satisfaction of the professional licensing board that the license has been timely renewed and, other than the suspension provided by this rule, is otherwise in good standing; and

(d) Submit a notarized declaration that all continuing education requirements, if any, for the entire suspension period have been met.

(9) Upon compliance with paragraph (8), the professional licensing board shall lift the suspension on the license; however, the professional licensing board may impose any conditions on the lifting of the suspension that it deems necessary to protect the public.

(10) If the licensee fails to timely renew his license during the period of suspension, the license shall be considered to be revoked by operation of law and subject to reinstatement in the sole discretion of the professional licensing board. The person who held the lapsed suspended license must comply with the professional licensing board's rules for reinstatement, pay any reinstatement fee, and provide the professional licensing board with a written release from the federal agency originally certifying that the licensee is in nonpayment status or default or breach of a repayment or service obligation under any federal educational loan, service conditional loan repayment program or service conditional scholarship program. The release must indicate that the licensee is making payments on the loan or satisfying the payment or service requirements in accordance with an agreement approved by the federal agency. It will be within the discretion of the professional licensing board whether to reinstate the license.

Chapter 295-17. PETITION FOR RULE CHANGES.

Rule 295-17-.01. Petition for Rule Changes.

(1) Each petition for promulgation, amendment, or repeal of rules made pursuant to the Georgia Administration Procedure Act shall be filed with the Board that had enacted the rule, or would otherwise be charged with enforcing the rule. The petition shall be in writing, and shall state:

(a) The name and address of the petitioner:

(b) The full text of the rule requested to be amended or repealed and the changes to be made or the full text of the rule desired to be promulgated:

(c) A statement of the reason such rule should be amended, repealed, or promulgated including a statement of all pertinent existing facts that relate to petitioner's interest in the matter; and

(d) Citations of legal, if any, which authorize, support, or require the action requested by petition.

(2) Upon receipt of the petition, the Board shall decide upon the action to be taken. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of the petition, the Board either shall deny the petition in writing (stating its reasons for the denial) or shall initiate rule-making or rule-changing proceedings in accordance with O.C.G.A. § 50-13-4 (Georgia Administrative Procedure Act).

Chapter 295-18. DECLARATORY RULINGS.

Rule 295-18-.01. Declaratory Rulings.
The agency shall render declaratory rulings as to the applicability of any statutory provision or of any of its rules. Requests for declaratory rulings must be in writing and the signature of the petitioner must be notarized. The agency shall respond to a request for a declaratory ruling within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of said request, except when the agency feels it would be in the best interest to seek the opinion of the Attorney General, in which case the response shall be issued within forty-five (45) days. Nothing in this paragraph shall limit or impair the right of the agency to seek the opinion of the Attorney General on any question of law connected with the duties of the agency. The agency shall not be required to render a declaratory ruling if it relates to an investigation agency before the Board.
